

SHENANDOAH HERALD

WOODSTOCK, VA.
[Entered at the Post Office, at Woodstock, Va., as second-class matter.]

FRIDAY, DEC. 2, 1887.

GENERAL LOCAL NEWS.

J. S. Borden & Co. still take the lead. Everything here.

Watch for Bargain's advertisements in the local columns next week.

All the boys of the Valley cannot make half the noise that the boys of our town make as the holidays draw near.

A fresh supply of currants, raisins, citron, cocoanuts, flavoring extracts and spices at Geary's.

Many of our Fort people complain that the road between Powell's Fort and Woodstock should be improved.

Honey, beans, oat meal and corn meal at Geary's. Honey for $2 per lb.

Fires are raging in the forest east and west of Staunton, doing great damage to timber and in several cases to dwellings.

If you want a nice Trecoat dress, go to J. S. Borden & Co's.

The genuine "Old Santa Claus" will be at Bargain's store in a few days, and won't he make the children glad!

Charles Keller, a youth, whose parents reside at Martinsburg, had both legs mangled Sunday evening in attempting to board a moving train at Sleepy Creek.

Christmas is coming on at a rapid rate, and our good people want to know where to find the necessary supplies. T. E. Bennett has an immense stock.

The safe, in the office of Rust & Shotwell, of Front Royal, was blown open by burglars on Thursday night, of last week, and ten dollars stolen. No clue to the burglars.

Buy the family soap at Geary's, each cake weighs 11 pounds, price 5c.

At Greenfield Farm, near Front Royal, on Thursday last, Miss Elsie Dilger, daughter of H. G. Dilger, was married to Lieut. Hubert Lamey, of the 11th Regiment of Grenadiers, Prussian army.

An immense stock of the finest and purest French and American candies have been sent to this office, and will guarantee them to be of the very best.

T. E. Bennett.

Go round all the streets of Woodstock and see the wonderful improvements in regard to new buildings, pavements, fencing, &c., and you will then know what a rapid growing town we have.

I have just opened for the holidays a nice lot of glassware, and persons can find a great many cheap, handsome and useful articles for Christmas presents.

M. Geary.

You will find the best selected stock of fall and winter goods ever brought to the Valley, at J. S. Borden & Co's.

The L. O. G. T. propose to give an open supper for the benefit of the order, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 9th, 1887. All who favor the grand movement of "temperance" should be on hand to help the cause along.

All persons wanting celery can be supplied every Friday and Saturday by leaving their orders with T. E. Bennett.

We are glad to say that Mr. M. D. Lindamood, for so long the popular telegraph operator of the Western Union at this place, has been appointed operator at Werke's Cove, Augusta county, Va., on the line of the R. & O. R. R.

Tin buckets, tin cups, tin dipper, tin coffee pots and a general line of tinware at Geary's.

"Secure Your Property."

A. G. WYNNE, Woodstock, Va., Fire Insurance Agent, represents six first-class Fire Insurance Companies.

The public sale of Dr. J. S. Irwin's large amount of real estate, in the town of Woodstock, embracing a number of the most desirable buildings and lots in the town, has been postponed until Tuesday, Dec. 27th, 1887.

One hundred bushels of the finest Irish potatoes, and a lot of the finest Eastern-made of Maryland sweet potatoes, for sale, very low at T. E. Bennett's.

Jacob Hoover, living on the river about two and a half miles south of town, killed the "boss" hog on Wednesday. It weighed 110 pounds, and twenty-seven pounds (27). It was of the pure Chester stock.

I have several kinds of mince-meat, of the best quality, for sale way down in prices. Try it. T. E. Bennett.

"What and When to Eat" is the title of an article in an exchange. The "when" never gave us any trouble in our eating, but we have been compelled to do a little of skimming after the "what."

I have received a large lot of sugars for the holidays. All grades and at all prices. T. E. Bennett.

An exchange says: "Never judge by appearances. A shabby coat may contain an editor, while the man wearing a high-toned play tag and supporting a single cane, may be a delinquent subscriber."

Boots and shoes a specialty at J. S. Borden & Co's.

Call and examine my stock of clothing. I have just received another supply of suits and overcoats. M. Geary.

As hog cholera has been fatal in this country, it may be well for our farmers to know that a hog owner in Ohio saved his from the disease by giving each of them a blue mass pill rolled in chop. He got the prescription from an old German doctor.

I want Irish potatoes at 20c per bushel; eggs at 22c; and butter at 30c, and remember that when you bring your trade to me that you get goods in exchange at cash prices. M. Geary.

It may not be the out of place to remind our readers that this is the season of the year to look after their stockings.

These are clogged with leaves and when winter comes they are filled with water, freeze and consequently burst. "A stitch in time will save nine."

The most elegant and extensive lot of Xmas goods ever brought to this town. Call in and examine. It will cost you nothing. T. E. Bennett.

To close out our full and winter stock of millinery, we will sell at cost for the next 30 days. Call and have Miss Emma Samson trim your hat for about one-third less than usual prices. Some of the best styles still on hand. S. Borden & Co.

If you want a good, cheap hat, go to J. S. Borden & Co's.

A nice lot of Cape Cod cranberries for making sauce. Try them, they are cheap. T. E. Bennett.

For sale privately a splendid five acre lot lying within the corporate limits of Woodstock. Call on Hugh G. Ott, Woodstock, Va.

Don't forget that I have a huge stock of spices of every description, at prices lower than ever known in this section before. Call and see if I don't surprise you. T. E. Bennett.

We regret to say that a young man by the name of Fred. Booth, of Tom's Brook, this county, had his arm so badly mangled while at work at Borden's saw mill in Warren county, as to require amputation. We have received no further particulars.

Fancy cakes of all kinds and of the very freshest and best. Fruit cake in two pound cans of the best quality for sale at T. E. Bennett.

Mr. George Flowers, living near Star Tanager, in Frederick county, shot a deer last week, which was perfectly white and a beautiful animal. It was bought by some Washington gentlemen who were in the neighborhood hunting. The Washington party killed four. It is said that deer are plentiful in that neighborhood.

I have just received a very attractive stock of boots and shoes, direct from a large manufacturing house in Boston, with which I can down the country in prices, styles and quality. All kinds of shoes, from the most elegant to the most useful, and the people is to come and see them. Respectfully, W. H. ALBERT.

On Monday evening last, about 9 o'clock, the alarm of fire caused our people to pour out of the stores, saloons, churches &c., until Court street was packed with the boys of the fire company, when they found that the school building was on fire. The company worked hard until the fire was under control, and the large building of the Graded School was saved with little damage done.

I now have in stock, a lot of best quality of sole leather, which I will sell from $2.00 to $2.25, per lb. Also a lot of kips and calf skins, and anything in the shoe trade from a bridle to a side of sole leather. Shoe lasts of all numbers. Call at W. H. ALBERT'S Boot and Shoe Store.

We are glad to say that our Committee, appreciating the danger of a half equipped fire department, have purchased a lot of first-class hose for the use of our fire boys. They are of the best quality, and with the ones already in service, will now expect reasonable success against fire. The hose should now be fully and completely overhauled and put in the best possible condition, so that we may be prepared for any emergency. Let the officials of the Fire Department see to this at once.

I have on hand a splendid stock of rubber goods of all styles. Men's rubber boots, boys' boots, men's wool lined alphas, men's wool lined alphas, women's croquet overshoes, women's knoll slippers, women's foot-holds, men's and children's waxed of all grades. Call on W. H. ALBERT, Woodstock, Va.

Steel rails of the best quality have been laid on the railroad from the depot in this place to the small station building at the Fair Grounds. It makes a splendid piece of track. It just takes John Riley to look after the hauling, and it is a low railroad and no mistake. Give him a show and he will soon have one of the best sections on the R. & O. R. R., not even excepting the main line.

THING IS YOUR REPAIRING.—I have opened my shoe shop in full blast, and am prepared to do all kinds of work promptly and will guarantee satisfaction or no charge made. All kinds of rubber and leather cement work done, such as rubber ball-soles and patching on gum boots.—Old boots made as good as new ones. Call at W. H. ALBERT'S Boot and Shoe Store, Woodstock, Va.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES.—Rev. J. W. Shields will preach in the Episcopal church at Woodstock, on Sunday morning, Dec. 4th, at 11 o'clock, a. m., and at night, 6 o'clock, A. M. At 10 o'clock, p. m., he will preach at Bowman's School House, near the residence of Mr. Chas. F. Rish. Rev. Dallas Tucker, of Charlottesville, Va., will assist Rev. Shields in a series of sermons in Woodstock, commencing Tuesday night, December 6th, at 6 o'clock, p. m., to which all are most cordially invited.

The following is the list of Shenandoah parties who have been drawn for the jury to serve in Winchester on the case of Turner A. Kibben for the murder of John Henry. The jury of twelve will be selected from the following list of thirty names: William Williams, Milton Zirkle, J. W. Gledhill, Samuel Moore, J. A. Woods, Monroe Fankhouser, L. H. Rinker, S. P. Lomas, Samuel H. Bowman, Joel F. Kagey, John R. Lantz, James M. Painter, John R. Wieman, Daniel Hottel, George J. Grandfield, Wm. M. Rish, Calvin J. Hottel, Jos. L. Shockey, B. B. S. Hoover, Lewis J. Fanchouer, Valentine Russell, D. E. W. Myers, J. L. Wisman, Joseph Lambert, John W. Neel, Jacob H. Goehner, H. H. Wisman, John D. Borden, Isaac Fankhouser, Daniel Spiller.

One of the most enjoyable and pleasant Thanksgiving affairs of the many that occurred throughout the great Valley of Virginia, was the great reunion of the Jno. E. Copp family that took place on that day at Kernstown, Frederick county, Va., within the hospitable walls of the roomy old brick mansion. The sons and daughters, with husbands and wives, and grandfathers and grandmothers, and the good old father and mother with that hearty sincerity and warmth that makes old Virginia hospitality so delightful, and the long table groined under such a burden of good things as only a Valley housekeeper and cook can provide. The glad, happy hours passed only too swiftly and brought the parting for the moment. Among those present were Mr. G. W. Copp, of Strasburg; Mr. John Whisen and wife, of near Winchester; Mr. D. W. Kamey and wife, of Charlottesville, W. Va.; Mr. W. A. Hockman and family, of Mt. Olive, Va.; Mr. A. C. Copp and family, of Virs's Hill, Va.; Mr. W. H. Spiggle and wife, of Meadow Mills, Va., and many others. When the guests separated for their respective homes, the ladies were called "Stitching up" all might live to enjoy many more of these happy reunions, and that a kind Providence would be specially gracious and merciful to the good old father and mother.

Fire at Columbia Furnace.

The well-known iron works, Columbia Furnace, this county, about seven miles west of Woodstock, was the scene of a destructive conflagration, on Wednesday morning. The fire, which is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, originated in the kitchen of Mr. W. D. Pollard, and soon swept over the large brick building and young containing the rolling department and put in the building into a heap of ruins. The loss is now estimated at $20,000, upon which, we are informed, there is no insurance. The stock of merchandise was valued at $6,000. We are informed that a Woodstock insurance agent had fixed up the papers for a $10,000 risk on this property only a few days before the fire, but for some reason the parties backed out. The agent is now happy while the other parties are just the reverse.

Since the above was in type the following has been received from Mr. Jacob Wisler:

COLUMBIA FURNACE, Va., Nov. 29th. EDITORS OF HERALD:—The large store house at this place, was burned this morning at 3 a. m., with nearly all its contents. The building was a two-story brick dwelling on one side, which was occupied by Mr. W. D. Pollard, back of this building was an ash house and staved for summer kitchen. The place where the ashes should have been put was secure, but the ashes from the Pollard house were allowed to run back on the floor by appearance of the ash pile upon which, it was supposed to be a stove. The building was nearly destroyed. Loss to company at least $15,000. No insurance.

Respectfully, JACOB WISLER.

For sale privately a splendid five acre lot lying within the corporate limits of Woodstock. Call on Hugh G. Ott, Woodstock, Va.

Don't forget that I have a huge stock of spices of every description, at prices lower than ever known in this section before. Call and see if I don't surprise you. T. E. Bennett.

We regret to say that a young man by the name of Fred. Booth, of Tom's Brook, this county, had his arm so badly mangled while at work at Borden's saw mill in Warren county, as to require amputation. We have received no further particulars.

Fancy cakes of all kinds and of the very freshest and best. Fruit cake in two pound cans of the best quality for sale at T. E. Bennett.

Mr. George Flowers, living near Star Tanager, in Frederick county, shot a deer last week, which was perfectly white and a beautiful animal. It was bought by some Washington gentlemen who were in the neighborhood hunting. The Washington party killed four. It is said that deer are plentiful in that neighborhood.

I have just received a very attractive stock of boots and shoes, direct from a large manufacturing house in Boston, with which I can down the country in prices, styles and quality. All kinds of shoes, from the most elegant to the most useful, and the people is to come and see them. Respectfully, W. H. ALBERT.

On Monday evening last, about 9 o'clock, the alarm of fire caused our people to pour out of the stores, saloons, churches &c., until Court street was packed with the boys of the fire company, when they found that the school building was on fire. The company worked hard until the fire was under control, and the large building of the Graded School was saved with little damage done.

I now have in stock, a lot of best quality of sole leather, which I will sell from $2.00 to $2.25, per lb. Also a lot of kips and calf skins, and anything in the shoe trade from a bridle to a side of sole leather. Shoe lasts of all numbers. Call at W. H. ALBERT'S Boot and Shoe Store.

We are glad to say that our Committee, appreciating the danger of a half equipped fire department, have purchased a lot of first-class hose for the use of our fire boys. They are of the best quality, and with the ones already in service, will now expect reasonable success against fire. The hose should now be fully and completely overhauled and put in the best possible condition, so that we may be prepared for any emergency. Let the officials of the Fire Department see to this at once.

I have on hand a splendid stock of rubber goods of all styles. Men's rubber boots, boys' boots, men's wool lined alphas, men's wool lined alphas, women's croquet overshoes, women's knoll slippers, women's foot-holds, men's and children's waxed of all grades. Call on W. H. ALBERT, Woodstock, Va.

Steel rails of the best quality have been laid on the railroad from the depot in this place to the small station building at the Fair Grounds. It makes a splendid piece of track. It just takes John Riley to look after the hauling, and it is a low railroad and no mistake. Give him a show and he will soon have one of the best sections on the R. & O. R. R., not even excepting the main line.

THING IS YOUR REPAIRING.—I have opened my shoe shop in full blast, and am prepared to do all kinds of work promptly and will guarantee satisfaction or no charge made. All kinds of rubber and leather cement work done, such as rubber ball-soles and patching on gum boots.—Old boots made as good as new ones. Call at W. H. ALBERT'S Boot and Shoe Store, Woodstock, Va.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES.—Rev. J. W. Shields will preach in the Episcopal church at Woodstock, on Sunday morning, Dec. 4th, at 11 o'clock, a. m., and at night, 6 o'clock, A. M. At 10 o'clock, p. m., he will preach at Bowman's School House, near the residence of Mr. Chas. F. Rish. Rev. Dallas Tucker, of Charlottesville, Va., will assist Rev. Shields in a series of sermons in Woodstock, commencing Tuesday night, December 6th, at 6 o'clock, p. m., to which all are most cordially invited.

The following is the list of Shenandoah parties who have been drawn for the jury to serve in Winchester on the case of Turner A. Kibben for the murder of John Henry. The jury of twelve will be selected from the following list of thirty names: William Williams, Milton Zirkle, J. W. Gledhill, Samuel Moore, J. A. Woods, Monroe Fankhouser, L. H. Rinker, S. P. Lomas, Samuel H. Bowman, Joel F. Kagey, John R. Lantz, James M. Painter, John R. Wieman, Daniel Hottel, George J. Grandfield, Wm. M. Rish, Calvin J. Hottel, Jos. L. Shockey, B. B. S. Hoover, Lewis J. Fanchouer, Valentine Russell, D. E. W. Myers, J. L. Wisman, Joseph Lambert, John W. Neel, Jacob H. Goehner, H. H. Wisman, John D. Borden, Isaac Fankhouser, Daniel Spiller.

One of the most enjoyable and pleasant Thanksgiving affairs of the many that occurred throughout the great Valley of Virginia, was the great reunion of the Jno. E. Copp family that took place on that day at Kernstown, Frederick county, Va., within the hospitable walls of the roomy old brick mansion. The sons and daughters, with husbands and wives, and grandfathers and grandmothers, and the good old father and mother with that hearty sincerity and warmth that makes old Virginia hospitality so delightful, and the long table groined under such a burden of good things as only a Valley housekeeper and cook can provide. The glad, happy hours passed only too swiftly and brought the parting for the moment. Among those present were Mr. G. W. Copp, of Strasburg; Mr. John Whisen and wife, of near Winchester; Mr. D. W. Kamey and wife, of Charlottesville, W. Va.; Mr. W. A. Hockman and family, of Mt. Olive, Va.; Mr. A. C. Copp and family, of Virs's Hill, Va.; Mr. W. H. Spiggle and wife, of Meadow Mills, Va., and many others. When the guests separated for their respective homes, the ladies were called "Stitching up" all might live to enjoy many more of these happy reunions, and that a kind Providence would be specially gracious and merciful to the good old father and mother.

Fire at Columbia Furnace.

The well-known iron works, Columbia Furnace, this county, about seven miles west of Woodstock, was the scene of a destructive conflagration, on Wednesday morning. The fire, which is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, originated in the kitchen of Mr. W. D. Pollard, and soon swept over the large brick building and young containing the rolling department and put in the building into a heap of ruins. The loss is now estimated at $20,000, upon which, we are informed, there is no insurance. The stock of merchandise was valued at $6,000. We are informed that a Woodstock insurance agent had fixed up the papers for a $10,000 risk on this property only a few days before the fire, but for some reason the parties backed out. The agent is now happy while the other parties are just the reverse.

Since the above was in type the following has been received from Mr. Jacob Wisler:

COLUMBIA FURNACE, Va., Nov. 29th. EDITORS OF HERALD:—The large store house at this place, was burned this morning at 3 a. m., with nearly all its contents. The building was a two-story brick dwelling on one side, which was occupied by Mr. W. D. Pollard, back of this building was an ash house and staved for summer kitchen. The place where the ashes should have been put was secure, but the ashes from the Pollard house were allowed to run back on the floor by appearance of the ash pile upon which, it was supposed to be a stove. The building was nearly destroyed. Loss to company at least $15,000. No insurance.

Respectfully, JACOB WISLER.

EDINBURGH NOTES.

Blackhead, beans and hominy at the Bakery.

Rolls out and oat meal at the Bakery.

Some of our young ladies are very envious, so much so that they are talking about moving to the country, so that they can take a buggy ride every Sunday.

Remember that Irvin & Baker will be behind any of their competitors, and will soon open one of the finest lines of Christmas goods in the town.

Of all the teams, single and double, that were on the road last Sunday, but one of them contained a lady from town, and that was driven by the husband of the lady who was in the buggy.

Irvin & Baker will have a full line of new goods for the holidays. Don't forget to call.

We are glad to say that our committee have determined upon and are now having put down the heaviest kind of stone crossings at all of the principal crossings in the town. This is a much-needed improvement, and long expected but hardly looked for.

A handsome piece of glassware given with every package of baking powder purchased of H. A. Whisen & Bro.

Everything in the confectionery line fresh at the Bakery.

The W. C. T. U. oyster supper last Saturday night was quite a success, and we had not learned what the proceeds were but I all who participated then served for the good of the gentlemen, when they received to change when it was done them, the success, beyond a doubt, must be very encouraging.

Oysters served by the plate or furnished in any quantity. H. A. Whisen & Bro.

Wanted, by Irvin & Baker, a kind of potatoes, for which the highest price will be paid.

If we are correctly informed, "Banty," formerly of this place, but now employed at the Red Bank Mill, passed through a trying ordeal in his first attempt at shaving himself away from home. Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.

Our informant says last Sunday "Banty" borrowed his razor from the barber, and shaved himself in the morning.